

A 'home group' (what's one of them ?)

I have really missed being part of a home group. In the past, these have been a great time to study together, to explore and to discuss the easy and difficult pieces in the bible with a small group of people. To systematically look at a book or theme in more detail than is possible on a Sunday. And almost as important, to meet people, get to know them, & to support one another in prayer and in many other ways.

So, I was therefore very excited to find out that St Mary's was going to start up a home group.

What is a home group

A time to meet together and explore the bible in detail, to learn and discuss what we read. To pray together for each other, our community, and beyond. And we mustn't forget the tea and coffee!

We will read the Bible together and work to apply what we learn to our everyday lives.
